Mr. William J. Casey, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I write to thank the Central Intelligence Agency, through you, for providing me the opportunity to participate in the "Conference on Intelligence" held at CIA Headquarters 31 October-2 November.

[redacted] and his associates in the Center for the Study of Intelligence, conducted a very well-organized conference. I want to express my appreciation to all of those involved in making the conference a success. For me it was a success in that my level of information about the Agency's organization and processes was substantially increased and updated.

Many questions and issues raised need further analysis, study and discussion. Towards this end, I hope that the work of the Center for the Study of Intelligence will be strongly supported in the future. I know of nothing more important to the nation than that its leaders have the best foreign intelligence possible.

Sincerely,

Harry Howe Ransom
